Miss Cassel herself maintains that her skating comes under the head of "art," and should be classed with dancing.

Classed with Dancing.

In discussing the case yesterday the president of the U.S. N. L. T. A. said he regretted exceedingly the inevitable publicity that must attend the incident, her skating comes under the head of "art," and should be classed with darcing.

"I never skated for a purse," she said last night, "nor have I ever played hockey for mome. I don't teach be ginners skating, but take those already versed in the rudiments of the sportiand instruct them is dance steps on the ice, as Mrs. Vernon Castle teaches dancing on a floor. Would she be considered ineligible to compete as an amateur tennis player."

While on the Pacific Coast this summer, Miss Cassel said, she had received a flattering financial offer to play lawn tennis for a moving picture concern, but had not considered it even for a moving picture concern, but had not considered it even for a moving picture concern, but had not considered it even for a moving picture concern, but had not considered it even for a moving picture concern, but had not considered it even for a moving picture concern, but had not considered it even for a moment, valuing her amateur standing.
